CASE NUMBER: 3:24-304

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of: life, consisting of three (3) years as to count 1 and life as to count 2, to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other special conditions on the attached pages.

DEFENDANT: DONALD RAY HURST, JR.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines, based on your criminal record, personal history or characteristics, that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may, with the prior approval of the Court, require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as described by the U.S. Probation Officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense.
- 2) You must notify the U.S. Probation Officer of any computer, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1), or any electronic device that you possess and/or use, or intend to possess and/or use, that can be linked to a computer network, the internet, an internet service provider, or an electronic exchange format, and you must allow the U.S. Probation Officer to install software designed to monitor your activities on any computer or electronic device that you possess and/or use. You must provide complete computer and electronic device use information to the U.S. Probation Officer, including, but not limited to, all data storage devices, passwords, internet service providers, email addresses and accounts, and current and former screen names. You must provide express, written authorization for release of information from your internet service provider. The monitoring software may record any and all activity on personal computers and electronic devices you may use, including the capture of keystrokes, application information, internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversations. Unless otherwise approved by the court, any computer or electronic device you possess and/or use must be compatible with the monitoring software used by the U.S. Probation Office. You must permit the U.S. Probation Officer to conduct a preliminary computer or electronic device search to confirm the device's compatibility with the monitoring software. You must permit the U.S. Probation Officer to conduct periodic unannounced searches of any computers or electronic devices subject to monitoring to ensure the monitoring software is functioning effectively and to determine whether there have been attempts to circumvent the monitoring software. You must not install any programs designed to encrypt data of any kind or designed to defeat or circumvent the monitoring software. If you fail to notify the U.S. Probation Officer of a computer or electronic device that you possess and/or use, such computer or electronic device will be considered contraband and may be subject to immediate search and/or seizure by the U.S. Probation Officer. Any computer or electronic device which is incompatible with the monitoring software will be considered contraband and may be subject to immediate search and/or seizure by the U.S. Probation Officer. If there is reasonable suspicion that a violation of a condition of supervision has occurred and that a computer or electronic device subject to monitoring contains evidence of this violation, the U.S. Probation Officer may conduct a search of such computer or electronic device and may search any data storage device compatible with such computer or electronic device, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. You must warn any other people who use the computers and electronic devices subject to monitoring that the computers and electronic devices may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. This condition does not apply to computers or other network- or internet-capable devices kept and maintained on the premises of your workplace, educational facility, or library. If your work or school provides you with a computer or internet-capable device for off-premises use, that device must be reported to the U.S. Probation Officer and will be subject to monitoring as if it were your personal device. You must pay all costs related to computer and electronic device monitoring or usage.
- 3) You must not possess, access, subscribe to, or view any videos, magazines, literature, photographs, images, drawings, video games, or Internet web sites depicting children in the nude and/or engaged in sexual activity, and may not patronize businesses or places whose primary purpose is to provide sexually oriented material or entertainment. You must not possess any materials depicting and/or describing "child pornography" and/or "simulated child pornography" as defined in 18 U.S.C. §2256. You must not enter a place where such materials can be obtained or viewed, electronically or otherwise.
- 4) You must pay any remaining unpaid restitution balance imposed by the Court in minimum monthly installments of $250.00 to commence 30 days after release from custody. Payments shall be adjusted accordingly, based upon your ability to pay as determined by the Court.
- 5) You must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.
- 6) You must provide the U.S. Probation Office with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The U.S. Probation Office may release financial information to the U.S. Attorney's Office.
- 7) You must submit to a psycho-sexual evaluation by a qualified mental health professional approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. You must complete any recommended treatment and abide by all the rules, requirements, and conditions of any recommended treatment program, to include mental health treatment if deemed necessary, until discharged. You must take all medications as prescribed.
- 8) You must submit to periodic polygraph testing at the discretion of the U.S. Probation Office as a means to ensure your compliance with the requirements of supervision or treatment program.
- 9) You must satisfactorily participate in and successfully complete a mental health treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The U.S. Probation Office, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity).

DEFENDANT: DONALD RAY HURST, JR.
CASE NUMBER: 3:24-304

ADDITIONAL SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 10) You must take all mental health medications that are prescribed by your treating physician
- 11) You must submit to substance abuse testing to determine if you have used a prohibited substance.
- 12) You must contribute to the cost of any substance abuse testing, treatment, location monitoring, and/or other program services if ordered as a condition of supervision not to exceed the amount determined reasonable by the court-approved U.S. Probation Office's "Sliding Scale for Services," and you will cooperate in securing any applicable third-party payment, such as insurance or Medicaid.
